
Project Notes: An American flag was blended into the sky on the magalog cover. This is one of three magalog projects created for the client and one of two where this blending technique was used on the front. Beyond that, the client wanted a non-cluttered and basic layout for the copy.

All contents and samples on this page are copyrighted by Klassen Communications and/or the client represented in these samples.